

**FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE****

September 2023

Laurelo Probate Announces Exciting Partnership with Bluelight Wills to Support Police Constabularies Across England and Wales

Laurelo, a well-recognised name in the probate sector, proudly unveils its strategic collaboration with Bluelight Wills, dedicated to supporting police constabularies across England and Wales. This exciting collaboration marks a significant stride in upholding common values and providing support to both active-duty and retired officers in the field of law enforcement.

Testament to their commitment of a compassionate service and an innovative approach, Laurelo Probate and Bluelight Wills are set to work together, combining their expertise to create a synergy that addresses the unique needs of police constabularies. Laurelo's strong family ethos and dedication to transparent processes harmoniously align with Bluelight Wills' mission to assist those who selflessly safeguard our communities.

Laurelo Founder Michael Roughan, fuelled by personal experience, aims to transform the process of applying for probate. This visionary journey has led Laurelo to embark on a collaborative adventure with Blue Light Wills, bringing together two entities that truly understand the power of empathy and clear communication.

"Laurelo's association with Bluelight Wills exemplifies an unwavering commitment to standing alongside those who dedicate their lives to public safety. We are thrilled to bring our expertise and heartfelt support to police constabularies throughout England and Wales, ensuring that they receive the guidance and assistance they deserve during what can be a very stressful time," expressed Emma, Laurelo's Director.

This partnership not only bridges the worlds of legal administration and community service but also reinforces Laurelo's dedication to making probate an approachable process for families. Together, Laurelo and Blue Light Wills will continue to provide invaluable resources, including personalised support and a 24/7 advice line, compassion, transparency, and reliability.

About Laurelo Probate:

Laurelo Probate is a leading figure in the legal and death sectors, dedicated to revolutionising the probate administration experience. With a resolute commitment to transparent processes, compassionate support, and personal communication, Laurelo Probate guides families through challenging times with unwavering empathy.

About Bluelight Wills:

Bluelight Wills is a renowned organisation dedicated to supporting police constabularies across England and Wales. Through their valuable services and compassionate approach, Bluelight Wills offers assistance and guidance to those who tirelessly protect our communities, ensuring their needs are met during life's transitions.