

Sports Club corporate passes for days out

Information about the corporate tickets available to Sports Club members.

Rules of use

- Tickets can be booked out no more than two calendar months before the date required.
- Tickets can be collected the same day or night before if not in use that day (doesn't apply to e-tickets).
- Tickets can be used once only on any given day.
- Tickets should be returned by 9pm the same day as used (doesn't apply to e-tickets).
- These tickets can be used by any Derbyshire Constabulary Sports Club member irrespective to which Division they belong.
- As the Derbyshire Police Sports Club member you have the responsibility for the corporate pass.
- You must attend the venue booked for the duration of the visit, be in possession of the ticket at all times and have your ID badge with you.

E-tickets

E-tickets are now available for certain attractions to Sports Club members in any location, and they can be emailed directly to your PNN address. For members who are retired or on maternity leave we can email it to your personal address so please make sure you provide this at the time of booking.

You will need to take the email/e-ticket with you when you visit the attraction and also have your ID badge with you. If for any reason you can no longer attend that day then please let reception know so that it is available to someone else.
